Rizer, Mrs. Dorman U. Fletcher, Mrs. J. R. Gregg Castle, Mrs. Ben Johnson, Mrs. William A. Jones, Mrs. Benson, Mrs. James L. Hadden, Mrs. George M. Sternberg, Mrs. Arthur Lee, Mrs. W. W. Finley, Mrs. Dennis, Mrs. Lurten, Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, Mrs. Edward Munford, Mrs. Ralph C. Johnson, Mrs. Samuel Spencer, Mrs. Virginia Miller, Miss Bessie Kibbey, Mrs. Lindsay Morehead, Mrs. Fanny J. Hicks, Mrs. Charles Carter, Mrs. James Davenport, and Mrs. Martin Littlejohn.

"The Washingtonians" have issued cards for their April dance, which will be held in Nationalities Armory on Thursday evening.

The Columbia Country Club has made elaborate preparations for its "Mother's Day" entertainment and dance on April 24. The young women who will preside at the punch bowl are Miss Genevieve Clark, daughter of the speaker of the House of Representatives; Miss Sally Williams, daughter of the speaker of the House; Miss Ethel Lloyd, daughter of the Representative from Missouri; Miss Ann Seymour Jones, daughter of the Representative from Virginia; Miss Roberta Andes, Miss Clara Emory Carrington, Miss Mary Madison Jones, Miss Lida Howard, Miss Helen Zeh, Miss Ethel Foster, Miss Helen Chaudron, and four young girls from Fairmont Seminary. Prof. Willie Moore will give a talk, "Troubles of the Weather Man." Senator Catron will make an address, and the Ogdin Carroll male quartet will sing. Mr. Arthur Pierce and Mr. Raymond Morgan will give some dialect songs, and Edwin Calow will give some of his character readings.

Exceptional talent has been secured for the musicale to be given Thursday evening, April 25, at the home of Mrs. Charles W. Richardson, 127 Connecticut Avenue, for the benefit of the educational department of the Young Women's Christian Association.

Mrs. Helen De Ya, soprano; Mrs. Ralph Bernard, contralto, and Mr. Henry Purcell Vezile, baritone, will sing. Selections will be given by a string quartet, composed of Misses Elizabeth Wilbur, Eda Bowers, Messrs. Josef Kasper and Ernest Lee.

The Alabama delegation of D. A. R., consisting of Mrs. Rhett Goode, Mrs. Morgan Smith, Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Trimble, and Mrs. Dowdell, were entertained at tea by Mrs. Martha S. Gleason, of Alabama, founder and vice president of the Southern Industrial Educational Association, at the association's headquarters, room 23, Southern Building, Saturday afternoon.

Many of the D. A. R. delegates have visited the beautiful exhibit of weavings and baskets displayed by the association, and have enjoyed a cup of South Carolina tea, served from the attractive North Carolina tea table made (as is all of the unique mission furniture of the office) by mountain students in mountain schools.

The Southern Industrial Educational Association is sending out invitations to hear Miss Pettit speak on the mountain work at the Hindman School, Kentucky, April 27, at 4 p. m., room 23, Southern Building. All are cordially invited.

Miss Alma Evans entertained the Sans Souci Card Club on Thursday evening, April 19, at her home in Alexandria. Five hundred was the game, and an exciting two hours were spent in its enjoyment. At the end of that time it was found that Miss Steadman, for the ladies, and Mr. Carroll, for the gentlemen, had made the highest scores, for which the hostess awarded them acceptable prizes. Light refreshments were served, and shortly after the members departed to catch the last car back to the city.

Miss Blanche Fish will be hostess for the next meeting, on Thursday evening, at her home, 130 Eleventh Street Southeast.

PERSONALS.

The appointment of two prominent young army officers to diplomatic posts is of much interest to Washington society—Capt. Hubert Llewellyn Wigmore and Lieut. Sherman Miles, the former appointed military attaché of the American Embassy at Tokyo, and the latter in the same capacity at Bucharest. Both will leave very soon to take up their new duties. Mrs. Wigmore and Mrs. Miles are both Washington girls and prominent in army and society circles here. Before her marriage Mrs. Wigmore was Miss Irene Stauffer Moore, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Stauffer Moore, of Washington and Pennsylvania. Lieut. Miles was Miss Vales Noble, daughter of Mrs. William Belden Noble. Capt. Wigmore has been stationed at the Washington barracks all winter, and Lieut. Miles has since his marriage a couple of years ago, been at Fort Myer. The latter is the only son of Lieut. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, retired, and a great-nephew of the late Gen. Sherman.

Mrs. Sidney Dillon Ripley is expected to arrive in Washington next week for a ten days' visit, prior to opening her summer home at Hempstead, Long Island.

Congratulations are being extended to the Argentine Minister and Mrs. Naon upon the birth of a daughter yesterday. The Minister is now in South America, where his family expects to join him in June.

Mr. Milton Fischer has returned to the University of Pennsylvania after a ten-day visit to his parents.

Mrs. Werner, of Carlyle, Pa., is visiting Mrs. M. Kaufman.

Miss Maude Garner, of Norfolk, is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. N. Peyer.

Mrs. M. Katz, of Fairmont Street, is spending some time in Baltimore.

Miss Polly McLaughlin, daughter of Mr. John H. McLaughlin, of New York, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Throp on Thursday, having come on for the afternoon reception and dance Mrs.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bad habits. There is a constitutional remedy for this. Mrs. M. M. Sumner, Box 107, Notre Dame, Ind., will send you any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send on money, but write her to-day if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child; the chance is it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults, and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

DISTINGUISHED LITERARY D. A. R. DELEGATE.

MRS. JOHN H. SNITZLER.

Of Chicago, a member of the Huguenot Society of America, the New York Historical, Daughters of the Empire, and D. A. R. organizations.

Of all the women of distinguished ancestry who come to Washington every year to the various congresses of women who meet here, there is no one whose pedigree surpasses, if indeed equals, that of Mrs. John H. Snitzler, of Chicago and Kingston-on-the-Hudson, who is known in the magazine and literary circles of Chicago by her maiden name, "Marie Graham." She has spent the week here at the New Exhibit as a delegate to the Continental Congress from her chapter, the "Wiltwyck," of Kingston, N. Y.

Mrs. Snitzler was both loyal and patriotic to her native home when she joined the D. A. R. Society in Kingston instead of in Chicago, for she had a sentiment in being identified with the old home of her Dutch ancestors along the Hudson River and in being a member of Wiltwyck Chapter in her girlhood home. She spends a portion of every year there. Her badge denoting that she is No. 35 in the exclusive Huguenot Society of America is one of the handsomest and most artistic ornaments known among such organizations. It is a real ornament.

In addition to this one, she wears her D. A. R. pin with several bars for ancestors; her badge denoting membership in the Daughters of the Empire State; and in the New York Historical Society. She is literally a "daughter of a hundred ears," and is a niece of Robert B. Dabbs, forty-seven generations removed. Her ancestors who came to this country were among the preachers and educators of the colonists, almost without exception. She is not a member of the Colonial Dames of America, although she is eligible, not only to that, but to the "Colonial Dames of Royal Descent."

Mrs. Snitzler is known almost as well in New York as she is in Chicago, as she is deeply interested in the environment of her distinguished Knickerbocker ancestors. She has read an interesting paper before a number of the smartest of the women's clubs on Holland and Holland history, which she has spent much time in studying. She has made many visits there and is wonderfully familiar with this most interesting and productive little country. She wrote the first article on the literature of the Netherlands ever published. She is a woman of independent fortune or she would doubtless be known all over the country as one of the women lecturers on these historic subjects. Although she has always been a devout Presbyterian, she is also a Theosophist, having become more and more interested in this for the past few years.

She is closely connected with the late William C. Whitney and with the Lewis Case family, and scores of others of the most famous and distinguished men and women of this country. One of her ancestors founded Yale College. Mrs. Snitzler rendered valuable assistance in the compiling of the recent Chicago history, and has done much important magazine and newspaper writing in the Windy City. She has spent much time in foreign travel, and has, indeed, "traveled all the seas."

She was accompanied on her Washington trip by Mrs. Walter C. Nelson, of Chicago, delegate of the Chicago Chapter, one of the prominent and important members of that chapter and of Chicago society. Mrs. Nelson is a daughter of one of Abraham Lincoln's electors, and is one of those who "sat upon his knee" in their childhood. They spend their summers together at Mohawk in Ulster County.

Mrs. Snitzler and Mrs. Nelson will remain over for a few days longer, although the greater number of "Daughters" have returned to their homes, from the congress.

Throp is giving Monday for the Mask and Wig Club.

Mrs. Eldridge Jordan and her sister, Mrs. Baldwin, of Baltimore, will go to New York to-morrow and on Tuesday will sail for Europe to spend several weeks. Mr. Jordan will join them later.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Damman have returned to the city from a visit in New York, where they were the guests of their son, Mr. Milton Damman.

Mr. William B. Silvey, reported missing in the list of passengers of the Titanic, was graduated from Brown University and was a well-known business man of Duluth. His mother, widow of Lieut. Col. William Silvey, of the First United States Artillery, resides in Washington. Her father was the late Lieut. Col. Helman, and her uncle was Gen. Cooper, formerly adjutant general of the army. Mr. Silvey's wife is reported among those saved.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Peyer and son, of the Octavia, are spending several weeks in Atlantic City at the Hotel Rudolph.

Mrs. Rafferty will arrive in Washington from Fort Wright about the 1st of May, and will be a guest at the New Willard. She will also visit in Baltimore.

Mrs. Lillian Harris, of New York, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Phil King, of this city.

Mrs. Lee Clinton, of Tulsa, Okla., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Shunk, of the Brighton. Mrs. Clinton is recent of the Tulsa Chapter, D. A. R., and is a delegate to the congress of Daughters, now in session in this city.

Mrs. Winn, of this city, was the guest of Col. and Mrs. Gordon at West Point for the hop on Friday evening. Miss McElhenny, also of Washington, was the guest of Mrs. Higley.

Ray, Dr. and Mrs. Louis Stern and Mrs. Dr. and Mrs. Abram Simon have returned to Washington after a week's visit in Baltimore, where they went to attend the Central Conference of American Rabbin.

Lieut. Commander Joseph K. Tansie, U. S. N., and Mrs. Tansie, are guests at the Grafton.

Mrs. S. T. Cameron and her three daughters, Miss Myria, Miss Leslie, and Miss Mildred, will return to Washington this week after a nine month stay in Germany and France, where they have been studying art, music, and literature.

Mrs. Rockwood Hoar and Miss Louise Hoar, of Washington, are spending a few days in New York.

Miss Barbara Kauffmann gave a luncheon yesterday at Altie, in honor of Miss Amy Richardson, a bride of the coming week.

Miss Alice Everman, who was to have sailed last Thursday on the Moltke for Italy, changed her plans at the last minute and accepted an offer from Victor Herbert to join his orchestra at New Orleans for a three weeks' tour. Miss Everman is now en route to New Orleans, and at the conclusion of her tour will sail for Italy and carry out her intention of spending the next three months there in study.

Mrs. John F. Parker, widow of Capt. J. F. Parker, U. S. N., has taken an apartment at the Westmoreland for the spring months. Mrs. Parker is a niece of the first Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, and is a sister of the widow of the former President. Capt. Parker was the first military aid at the White House, and served his wife's uncle in that capacity.

Miss Annie Irwin, daughter of Commander William Manning Irwin, U. S. N., retired, has out invitations for a bridge on April 22.

Miss Jennie Rice, of Chicago, who has been spending the winter with relatives in Baltimore and Washington, left Tuesday for her home.

J. LYNN YEAGLE A BENEDICT.

Miss Evelyn V. Cady, of Texas.

John Lynn Yeagle, a prominent newspaper man of this city, formerly of Chicago, was married yesterday afternoon to Miss Evelyn V. Cady, of Baltimore, Tex., daughter of Henry A. Cady, postmaster of that city. The ceremony was performed at the residence of Mr. Yeagle in the Garfield apartments, by Rev. Edward S. Hale, of the Church of the Ascension, the pastor, Rev. Dr. Hendrick Nelson, giving the blessing.

The event was a quiet one, only a few intimate friends being present. Mr. Yeagle has been seriously ill for the last six weeks, and was only removed to his home from the hospital yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Yeagle is a sister of Mr. Yeagle's first wife, who died many years ago.

Mr. Yeagle is very popular among his colleagues of the press, and took an active part in the founding and organization of the National Press Club, of which world-renowned organization he was an officer for several years. Due to his illness, he was compelled to withdraw from active life for the time being. He is still under the care of a physician, but expects to be up and doing before long. The members of the craft offer their heartiest congratulations to the happy couple and wish them happiness and success.
